Helen Tran
New Zealand Certificate In English Language (Level 5)

With a passion for marketing and a desire to complete an MBA, Helen Tran decided to enroll in the New Zealand Certificate in English Language (Level 5) to prepare for the academic journey ahead.

“The NZCEL course was very useful. What impressed me was the quality of the instructors' teaching and the interesting learning materials. I learned and practised writing assignments with an academic style and how to do references properly. I also enjoyed the speaking practice hours, group discussions and presentations. My skimming skills to summarise an article, journal or listen to details have also improved significantly after this course.”
